

Jack Table

Jack is the result of sculptural studies of two united rectilinear forms, and how they support one another when joined. The composition combines two unstable forms into a balanced single structure. The character of the surface comes from Sean's meticulous shaping. The final pieces are cast in resin and then receive a metal leaf oxidized finish. Each table will be unique, slight variation is to be expected.

Height	17.375 inches	44 cm
Width	18 inches	45 cm
Depth	14 inches	35 cm

O'Hara Studio

